Introduction

1. At the close of nominations for the Parish Council Elections scheduled for 4 May 2023, both Udimore and Whatlington Parish Councils have not received sufficient nominations to remain quorate, having received only one nomination each. Both Udimore and Whatlington are made up of five members each which requires a quorum of three.
2. Whilst this state of affairs is the responsibility of the Parish Council, the possibility of there being inquorate Councils has been envisaged by the legislature which has made statutory provision to cover such eventualities. This provision entitles the District Council to appoint, on a temporary basis, a sufficient number of Parish Councillors to enable the work of the Parish Council to continue until elections (contested or otherwise) can take place.
3. The Licensing and General Purposes Committee has the power to make temporary appointments to Parish Councils in this eventuality. It is also requested that to avoid future reports and administration the Chief Executive be granted standing delegated authority to make such appointments in the event of inquorate parish councils in the future.

Proposal

4. It is therefore requested that the Committee grant the Chief Executive delegated authority to make the necessary Orders under Section 91 of the Local Government Act 1972, appointing sufficient Members to constitute a quorum for both Udimore and Whatlington Parish Councils.
5. The persons appointed will only act so long as necessary until an election (contested or otherwise) can be held, this will probably be sometime in June 2023.
6. The proposed Orders are attached as Annexes 1 and 2 to this report. It is suggested that the Committee agree to the following persons being appointed to each ensure the Parish Councils are quorate:

Udimore Parish Council

The One District Councillor representing Brede and Udimore District Council Ward (elected on 4 May 2023)
Councillor Carl Maynard Brede Valley and Marsham Division East Sussex County Council

Whatlington Parish Council

The Two District Councillors representing North Battle, Netherfield and Whatlington Rother District Council Ward (those elected on 4 May 2023)
Councillor Kathryn Field Battle and Crowhurst Division East Sussex County Council

Conclusion

7. In order to ensure that both Udimore and Whatlington Parish Councils are quorate following the elections in May, Rother District Council needs to appoint Parish Councillors who can act until elections (contested or otherwise) can take place.
8. It is requested to grant the Chief Executive a general standing delegation to make such appointments in the event of inquorate parish councils in the future. In all circumstances the appropriate District Councillor(s) and East Sussex County Councillor would be the persons appointed.

Financial Implications

9. There are no financial implications for Rother District Council.

Risk Assessment

10. Failure to appoint Parish Councillors to Udimore and Whatlington Parish Councils would result in inquorate parish councils which are unable to operate.
